

South Plains Financial, Inc. Publishes 2025 Community Impact Report

March 9, 2026

LUBBOCK, Texas, March 09, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- South Plains Financial, Inc. (NASDAQ:SPFI) ("South Plains" or the "Company"), the parent company of City Bank (the "Bank"), today announced the release of the Company's 2025 Community Impact Report. This report demonstrates South Plains' ongoing commitment to being a responsible corporate citizen in each of the unique communities in which the Company and Bank operate.

Curtis Griffith, South Plains' Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, commented, "Our commitment to the communities that we serve has been central to who we are since City Bank's founding in 1941. This year's Community Impact Report reflects not only the dedication of our employees, but the enduring relationships that make our work meaningful. From empowering students through financial education to supporting local nonprofits and investing in small businesses and community development, we remain focused on strengthening the communities where we live and work. I am very proud of our team and grateful for the trust that our customers and communities continue to place in us as we work together to build a stronger, more resilient future."

Highlights from the 2025 Community Impact Report:

- Provided more than $478 million in loans for small businesses, farms and community development
- $180,000 awarded annually through the Company's Community Rewards program to nonprofits across the South Plains, Permian Basin, and El Paso regions
- Employees volunteered more than 4,119 hours to over 900 organizations and contributed over $78,000 to the United Way charities
- Provided 419 hours of learning to more than 360 students in our Texas and New Mexico markets in our second year with our EverFi partnership.
